Morrison Bros. & Co.

J. I. Shockley, of Hagerman, returned Saturday evening from Mineral Wells, Texas, where he took his son for a cure of rheumatism. He is loud in his praise of the benefits of the Mineral Wells water and baths.

E. L. Wiley left Sunday morning for Bakersfield, Calif., where he will spend a few days looking after business before going to Los Angeles, his home. He was here 95 days closing out his property.

Charles A. Reynolds, of Santa Fe, arrived last night for a business visit.

Miss Annie and Mr. Clinton Wagner left Sunday for a month's visit at their old home in Memphis, Tenn.

D. M. Bower left Sunday morning on his return to Bower, Kan., after spending four days here prospecting and looking after land interests.

Charles Hamilton, the well known painter, has returned from a trip of two or three months through Lincoln county, where he has been painting.

S. Totzek and E. A. Finnegan are in Artesia, having gone down yesterday afternoon by auto with B. H. Totzek, who returned on the train this morning.

C. V. Safford, Territorial Auditor, arrived Saturday night from Santa Fe to spend a few days checking over the books of County Treasurer James A. Sutherland.

Burno Totzek returned this morning from a Sunday visit with his mother and sister at Artesia. He got back with him Master Fruit Dealing, who went for a short visit.

Miss Ella Sheets and brother, Temple Sheets, spent Sunday with friends at Dexter, returning this morning.

C. O. Johnson, of Amarillo, traveling auditor on the Pecos Valley lines of the Santa Fe, passed through Saturday evening on his way to Oriental, the new town between Lakewood and Carlsbad, to check in an agent at the new station there. Oriental is now shipping so much cement plaster the place has assumed enough importance to demand a railroad agent.

Miss Bessie Archey passed through Saturday night on her way from Clovis to Carlsbad, where she will visit a few days. She formerly lived in Roswell.

H. H. Richardson, baggage man on the road between Amarillo and Carlsbad has returned to his run after a ten days' vacation spent at Mojara, Texas.

Mrs. E. E. Wisner left Sunday morning for a visit in Toledo, Ohio, and points in Michigan after which she expects to return to Roswell. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Wells, of Toledo, who was here two months visiting Mrs. Wisner.

Reduction on Taxes.

All taxes for 1909 will be due the first day of June, but as yet we have heard of no reduction on same for prompt payment, but if you will buy all the goods you need this week at Snipe's sale you will save enough to more than pay your taxes.

Ezra Patton left Saturday for his place, Midway Ranch, which is midway between Hagerman and Lake Arthur. He intends to move his family there from Roswell as soon as his children entirely recover from the effects of measles.

Unveil Draper Statue.

Boston, May 30.—A heroic bronze statue of Gen. Draper, the civil war hero, was unveiled today on the lawn of the Draper home at Hopdale.
